

Day 1 - Conference
Opening Session
9:00-9:30	Registration & Tea/Coffee
9:30-9:45	Conference Opening	TBC
9:45-10:00	Conference Introduction	Dan Hoare, United Kingdom Ireland & Lakes Network, chairperson
10:00-10:30	Plenary: LAKES IN IRELAND – MIRRORS OF CHANGE.	Catherine Dalton, University of Limerick
10:30-11:00	Tea/Coffee
Session 1: Lough Leane and Kerry Lakes
11:00-11:15	Lough Leane and Kerry Lakes - the deep past.	Ken Whelan, Consultant & Áine Ní Shúilleabháin
11:15-11:30	Lough Leane and Kerry Lakes - road to the present	Michael Boyce, Kerry County Council
11:30-11.45	Lough Leane and Kerry Lakes - view to the future.	Niamh Rogan, Local Authority Waters Programme
11.45 – 12.00	Conservation in Kerry.	Eamonn Meskell, National Parks & Wildlife Service
12.00-12.15	What Lough Leane means to the people.	Mike Fleming, Ross Castle Boat Tours
12:15-12.30	Questions and Answers
12.30-12.45	UKILN Network Development.
12.45- 13.45	Lunch
Session 2: Lake Restoration
13:45-14:00	Lessons learned from Loch Leven and other Scottish lochs.	Linda May, Centre for Ecology and Hydrology
14:00-14:15	Restoring our drinking water lakes.	Mark Farrelly, National Federation of Group Water Schemes
14:15-14:30	Lough Neagh - the story so far.	Stephen Prentice, Northern Ireland Environment Agency
14:30-14:45	Lough Muckno – Road to Recovery.	Patrick McCabe, Office of Public Works
14:45–15.00	Lough Feeagh past, present and future.	Elvira de Eyto, Marine Institute
15:00-15.15	Questions and Answers

Session 3: Citizen Science
15:30-15:45	Freshwater Biodiversity Citizen Science: Mapping the Past, Present, and Future of life in Irish Lakes.	Dave Wall, National Biodiversity Data Centre
15:45 -16:00	40 Years of Changing Waterfowl Use of Lough Leane, Killarney National Park (1970s to 2020s).	Áine Ní Shúilleabháin
Session 4: Reflections
16:00-16:15	Introduction to Reflections Session
16:15-16:45	Fireside Chat	Jim Bowman, Pat Duggan, Linda May
16.45-17.00	Closing Remarks	Katie Harper, Secretary, United Kingdom & Ireland Lakes Network
19.30	Conference Dinner

Day 2 - Conference
Field trip
9.00 am	Leave Killarney Plaza Hotel
	Killarney National Park
15.00 pm	Return to Hotel